

Investigator-Initiated Studies (IIS) Program Agreement for Submission of Study Proposal

I wish to submit the study proposal described herein for consideration by Cytori Therapeutics, K.K. I understand and agree that this study proposal will be considered by Cytori only under the terms and conditions set forth below and further agree that these terms and conditions shall also apply to any previous or future disclosures made by me that relate to the idea described herein.

As used below, the words “the company” mean Cytori Therapeutics, K.K.

1. The company does not solicit suggestions, and all submissions or disclosures of ideas are voluntary on the part of the submitter. No confidential relationship is established or implied by the company’s acceptance or consideration of the submitted material.
 2. All suggestions will be submitted in writing and the company shall have the right to retain any material submitted to it in connection with the suggestion.
 3. Ideas that are not covered by a patent shall be considered by the company only with the understanding that the use made of such ideas and the compensation, if any, are matters resting solely in the discretion of the company.
 4. Patented ideas shall be considered only with the understanding that the submitter agrees to rely for his protection wholly on such rights as he may have under the patent laws. Pending applications for a patent are to be treated in the same manner as ideas not covered by a patent, as described in item 3, above, unless and until a patent is issued.
 5. The company shall not be obligated to give reasons for its decision or to reveal its past or present activities relating to the submitted idea. Negotiating or offering to purchase an idea will not prejudice the company nor be deemed an admission of the novelty, priority, or originality of the idea.
